User app terms and regulations

Customers, You are always our only strength so we look forward to your support in providing a more effective service.

If you choose a service provider to provide their service, submit your opinion on the quality of their service.

Every time you receive a service, it is at your discretion and the customer is solely responsible for its quality and quality of service.

It is your duty and responsibility to provide all the assistance to the client who will come to your aid to identify the faults in your vehicle and provide you the service as soon as possible to minimize the hassles and obstacles that may occur on your way.

Service provider app terms and conditions

Please note that you are committed to the quality and effectiveness of all the services you provide and that all of those services are humanitarian.

You are bound to provide your service to our organization only and you will lose your membership if you attempt to provide that service with another organization without notice.

We look forward to your involvement and transparency in cash and payment transactions and receipts.

Every service you provide should be tailored to the customer's preferences and your successful suggestions and ideas should be communicated to the customer during the service delivery process.

After providing prompt and friendly service, it is imperative that you provide a selfie image of yourself and the customer and the name of the relevant customer and the location where the service was provided to the Head of Service.

You may lose your valuable membership due to alcohol or misconduct and you will be subject to a fee for recovering it.
